Burkett Selected as Public Services Employee of the Quarter

Bobby Burkett, code compliance investigator, was recognized as the Santa Rosa County Public Services Employee for the second quarter of the 2009/2010 fiscal year. An employee since 1998, he began his service with the county as a plumbing inspector and has gone on to successfully pass rigorous state exams to become licensed as a multi-certified inspector/plans examiner in the plumbing, mechanical and family dwelling disciplines and a certified State of Florida Building Official. Burkett was selected as the employee of the quarter for his daily focus on customer service, positive attitude, professionalism and his high standing with not only his peers, but the citizens he serves.
