Navarre Beach Lifeguard Season Scales Down

With the start of the school year, lifeguard season at Navarre Beach is scaling down. Weekdays, beach goers are urged to swim in the area near lifeguard tower three, located east of the Navarre Beach Pier, which will continue to be manned by lifeguards. On weekends, lifeguards coverage expands, with staff guarding the beaches at towers one and two found gulf-side in Navarre Beach Park and towers three and four located to the east of the Navarre Beach Pier. The six remaining Navarre Beach lifeguards will staff the beach until the lifeguard season ends on Sunday, October 31. At the height of the season, 13 lifeguards safeguarded Navarre Beach.

When enjoying Navarre's beaches, residents and visitors are asked to exercise caution and use common sense, including heeding the warnings of beach flags. Beach conditions can be checked on the county's Website at www.santarosa.fl.gov, by selecting the Navarre Beach Surf Report button.
